PHILLIPS ACADEMY ANDOVER MASSACHUSETTS

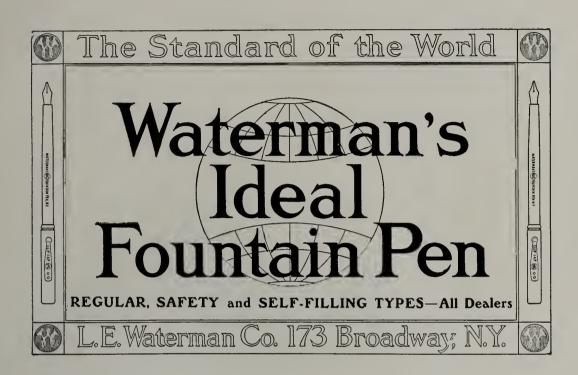

FOUNDED at Andover, Mass., 1778, by the gifts of Hon. Samuel Phillips and his uncle, Hon. John Phillips. Others have added to the original foundations by endowments of several kinds, and various scholarships have been established. The total endowment is $1,262,000.

- Phillips Academy has established very high repute for its broad scholarship, for its elevated ideals, and especially for the practical success which has been obtained by its students.
- ¶ In all the leading professions and every useful avenue of endeavor, its alumni are found among leaders. In all the great colleges, and particularly Yale and Harvard, the graduates of this Academy have for years been distinguished for their thoroughness of preparation and success in their college work. The academy has also done a useful work in the education of boys who have not gone to college. Especially is it distinguished for its American, democratic spirit, the sons of the wealthiest men in the country mingling with boys who are working their way through school.
- ¶ The courses of the academy have thoroughly adjusted and adapted themselves to the highest collegiate requirements. The ability of its faculty, the excellence of its equipment, its library and laboratory facilities, the prestige of honorable history and other advantages and achievements have placed Phillips Academy in the front rank of American schools.

N this, the Twenty-first Annual Pot Pourri and Class Book, we have endeavored to narrate the history and enumerate the activities of the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirteen. If, in future years, this volume should recall to mind the pleasant years spent on the Hill, and should refresh the memory of friendships formed while here, we will feel repaid, and will consider that our labors have not been in vain.

The Board takes this opportunity to thank all those who by act or suggestion have in any way aided in compiling this volume.

THE SENIOR FENCE

The Junior Pear

EPTEMBER 14th 1909, the Class of 1913 made its appearance at Chapel for the first time. We felt very small and in the way as we sat down in the rear seats and tried to hear what "Al" Stearns said by way of greeting to the school.

After Chapel we were shown to Room 1 where "Pap" Eaton helped us to make out our schedules. We were greatly relieved when the ordeal was over, and felt as though we had been here all our lives, until the name of "Preps" reached our ears, this being the way those fellows above had of addressing us. They let us alone when football began, and soon we saw Andover win from Exeter by the score of 3 to 0, "Rib" Porter kicking a difficult goal.

We certainly enjoyed the celebartion that night, and all agreed that there was nothing like it. 1913 was represented on the team by "Bob" Jones and "Pete" Fletcher.

That winter we learned how to make "husks" out of ourselves under the supervision of "Doe" Page. During the winter, basketball, then a popular sport, kept our attention, and Captain Swihart's star team won a large majority of the games.

Before we knew it, Spring Vacation had come and we came back feeling quite at home. Track and baseball took our attention, and we watched the men develop under Captain Eames and Captain Burdette. On May 30th we suffered a defeat in track, but made up for it June 4th by winning from Exeter in baseball by the score of 5 to 4, when Captain "Hap" Burdette put one over right field. 1913 was represented in track by "Bob" Jones and in baseball by "Tommy" Boles.

We felt sad when we knew we had to leave town, but knew that there were three years more for many of us. Of the fellows now in school who were here in 1909 there are: Allen, Auty, R. S. Cook, Diekey, Dunscombe, W. Durfee, Feeney, Ferguson, Hale, Martinez, Moorehead, W. Palmer, Higgins, Quinn, W. W. Sheldon, Tetley, B. V. Thompson, and Watson.

W. LAURENCE DICKEY

The Junior Middle Pear

FTER a very pleasant summer, spent at our various homes, we of 1913 returned to the dear, old school on the hill, to eontinue our studies, to renew old acquaintances, and to make new ones among the many "preps" who, for the first time saw the school which we had come to know and love so well.

At first, our time was well taken up with the novelty of being able to haze someone, and that we did the job well, may be proven by asking any honourable member of the class of 1914. But soon we settled down to the routine of our lessons. Football practice started shortly for all hands, and the team which Captain "Dud" Rogers led on the field defeated Exeter to the delightful tune of 21—0. Heywood Jones, Carl French, and Van Brocklin represented 1913. The remaining history of the fall term is soon told. That night we had a celebration, several weeks of hard work followed, ending in term Exams., and then -HOME.

After a delightful vacation, during which we loafed and slept to our hearts' content, we again took up our work, with the added joy (?) of Doctor Page's gym. system, which, if properly mixed with iodine and applied generously, will make athletes out of infants. However, in spite of gym. and lessons, the time passed pleasantly; for Captain Hay with his basketball team (on which Chatterton represented 1913) and the hockey team under "Dud" Rogers had scheduled a number of games, which served to brighten the dull parts of the term. In February eame the Junior Prom., which was a great success, and, a little later, the musical clubs treated us to a very enjoyable concert.

When we returned after our short spring vacation, all interest was centered upon the track meet and the baseball game with Exeter. Although these events were a long way off, the men were working hard and showed great promise. The weather was bad, the track soft, and the baseball diamond in poor shape; but, in spite of all obstacles, the coaches and captains developed a wonderful ball team and an excellent track squad. However, when the track meet came on May 30th, Exeter showed her superiority by defeating our team under "Bob" Martin by 58 points to 37. Crary upheld the honor of 1913 by placing in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. The baseball game was still left us, however, and we had not the slightest doubt but that we should be fully revenged for the track defeat just sustained. But over-confidence and Exeter's great playing combined, sent Captain Reilly and his stars (who had only lost to Yale by 3-0 and to Harvard by 3-2) down to defeat to the score of 2-1. Tommy Boles and Van Brocklin represented 1913 on the team.

The Exeter games over, our thoughts turned toward final exams. and the long vacation before us. We took our exams, and set out for home, filled with happy thoughts of pleasures yet to come, both in the summer before us and in the two years yet to be ours at Andover.

The Middle Bear

E came back in the fall of 1911 ready for another year on the Hill. Many new faces greeted us and two new buildings, Bishop and Day, were ready to lodge the fellows. The administration office, too, had been moved to the more spacious Breehin Hall. The old office now served as a club-room for the Faculty and Alumni.

Under Captain Van Broeklin and Coach Lillard the football men started their work. The new athletic system was begun this year, and on October 11th the first Varsity football squad was picked, and the elass was well represented. The season was a successful one, as we lost only to Harvard 1915, defeating Yale 1915 and Dartmouth 1915, and finished the season with the annual victory over Exeter, 23 to 5, on Plimpton Field at Exeter. Hay, Ames, Sheldon, B. V. Thompson, and Hogg represented the class on the team.

Football over, we busied ourselves with our books until the holidays. We came back after a welcome vacation, and the hockey and basketball teams began their season. Hockey, under Captain Middlebrook and Coach O'Brien, had a fairly successful season; 1913 was represented by Cook and Gould. The basketball team under Captain Dillon had a good season, as did the swimming team under Captain Fullerton. On the former team, Dillon and B. V. Thompson represented the Class, and on the latter, Moore, B. V. Thompson and Gould.

The musical clubs were busy all term and gave several concerts, the final one being the combined concert with Exeter in the Andover Town Hall on the night of March 16. Nickum, Space, Keeny, Royce, Sharp, Huntress, Phillips, Powell, Stockwell, Sturgis, Dickey, Ogden, B. V. Thompson and Poole represented the Class.

On February 21, 1913 gave the annual Junior Prom in Borden The committee consisted of Hamilton (Chairman), Gymnasium. French, Keeline and Gould. From all standpoints the term was very successful, but that did not make us feel sad when vacation drew near.

Immediately after Easter, baseball under Captain Mahan and track under Captain Tilton, started. The baseball team, like the football team, was successful, and on June 8th, on Brothers Field, defeated Exeter in a hair-raising game, score 5 to 4. The Class was represented by Captain-elect Wiley, and Scudder. The track team was less fortunate, and on Memorial Day was defeated at Plimton Field by our New Hampshire friends. Captain-elect Crary, Nichols and Davis were on the team from 1913.

Then we faced college exams and vacation, and looked forward to being Seniors when we should come back in the Fall.

The Senior Pear

HEN the Class of '13 returned to Andover last September, we were proud to think that at last we had attained our Senior year, but, on the other hand, sorry that this year was to be our last.

As we look back over our years here at Andover, we notice that the Phillips Academy of today is an institution much changed from what it was when many of the Class of '13 first came. We have scen an increase in the number of dormitories; the Brick House has been torn down, and now the Commons fellows are scattered about the school, instead of being all housed together. This is a great improvement, because the fellows have better opportunities to become acquainted with one another, and it makes the spirit of the school more democratic. The Swimming Pool and the new Infirmary have also been constructed since we came here. The Grill which has taken the place of Chap's has proved a great success. Here there have been several smoke-talks, a feature which is entirely new to the student body. These talks have given the fellows a chance for companionship and for hearing some very interesting and eminent speakers. change in the athletic system here in the last two years has proved to be very satisfactory, and has been watched with great interest by outsiders as well as by those in school.

The football season opened with the class games, and soon the squad was picked. Under the excellent coaching of Mr. Lillard and the management of Hanna, the team did itself proud in the preliminary games with Dartmouth Fresh, Worcester Academy, and Cushing. The climax, however, came on November 9th, when Exeter met defeat for the eighth consecutive time, by a score of 7 to 0. Among those that upheld the honor of the Class of '13 were Thompson, Hogg, Wiley, Sheldon and Gould.

The soccer team had a very good season. The Class of '13 was represented by Blanchard, Feency, Tucker, Young, and Manager Brown.

A large number turned out for hockey, but on account of the weather Captain Cook and Manager Woolley had to give it up for this year. There was nothing much in the line of athletics for the remainder of the Winter term. There were several interesting swimming meets, however, and Andover won almost every one. Captain Gould and Manager Burnham represented '13.

In the social line the musical clubs gave very successful concerts at Rogers Hall and Quiney Mansion. The combined concert at Exeter went off very well. The Dramatic Club, which had almost died out here, was reorganized and gave the play "Our Boys," for the production of which the club deserves great credit. The Junior Prom came at a time most opportune for livening things up. The Class of '14 deserves due credit for its success.

In spite of the disagreeable weather Captain Crary has been exercising his men daily, and with Mr. Crawford as coach and Manager Dillon upholding the business end, the prospects of a victory over Exeter in track seem very good. The Fall class track meet showed some splendid new material in the school.

With several men of our last year's baseball team back, Exeter's chances for winning the game on June 7th look pretty slim. Everyone is confident in Mr. O'Brien's coaching, and with Captain Wiley as leader and the good schedule which Manager Hamilton has made out, the games this spring should be very interesting.

Thus our class in many ways has made its mark in school life. More important than all this, however, our class has done its part in leading the school. It possesses many men of executive ability, with the powers of leadership, men who have had an influence on the temper and morale of the Academy. Such men the Class of '13 sends forth into the world to make their mark in different lines. May each one of our class stand always for what is fair and right and thus be proud and deserving of being called "Andover men."

In Memoriam

Julian Robert Cyril Buckle

Died March 3, 1913

Musicals

HE Musical Clubs held their trials very shortly after the opening of school in the Fall, and with splendid coaching, and under the leadership of three very competent men, the clubs were soon well under way. The first term was devoted entirely to training, and with the exception of the singing of the choir and the Chapel notices, the school body knew very little of the work of the clubs. Still, the members of these organizations were working hard, during the Fall and Winter terms, and were worthy of much praise for the splendid spirit in which they entered into their work.

On January the 18th, the first concert was given at Rogers Hall School in Lowell. Although this trip took place within two weeks after the opening of the Winter term, not many men were ineligible, thus allowing the clubs to make a very good showing. Following the concert a reception and dance was given in the new gymnasium. The manner in which they were entertained will never be forgotten by any member of the clubs.

The second concert was given in the Andover Town Hall on March 1st. Here the school and townspeople were given an opportunity of finding out just what the clubs could do. The hearty encores after each number proved that the concert was a decided success and that the work of the members of the clubs was very much appreciated by the audience.

The next trip was on March 8th to the Quincy Mansion School in Wollaston. After the program had been rendered, a reception and impromptu dance followed. The evening passed very speedily and was enjoyed by all.

The date of the sixth annual Andover-Exeter combined concert was March 15th. The Andover men arrived in Exeter and were heartily received and entertained by the members of the Exeter clubs. The concert took place in the Exeter Town Hall before a large audience. The showing made by both schools was most successful in every way.

The following men represented 1913 on the Glee Club: Armour, Stockwell, J. P. West, M. R. Smith, Nickum and Palmer.

1913 POT POURRI

On the Mandolin Club were Armour, Dickey, Keeney, M. W. Phillips, A. E. Sharp (Leader), B. V. Thompson, Mudge, Ogden, Stockwell, and Sturgis.

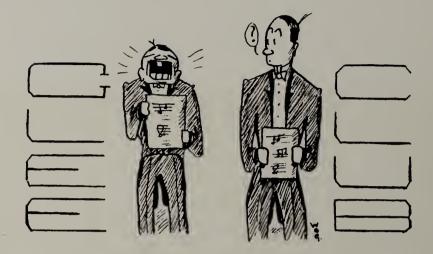

There were but three men from 1913 on the Banjo Club: Dickey, Sharp and Powell, the latter being the leader.

Three men, Armour, Nickum and Phillips sang on the quartet.

Debating

EBATING in Andover during the last few years has become more for the class than the individual, especially during the last year, when it has been aided materially by the courses in Public Speaking. The two literary societies, Philomathean and Forum were in such a tottering condition in the Fall term of this year that they deemed it best to unite, but they separated again after several meetings and at present both are flourishing independently. Philo as usual has the larger membership, but the enthusiasm in Forum, considering its small numbers, is very kecn. The two societies owe many of their successes to the Class of 1913, as both have a large percentage of Seniors.

During our first year in school very few of our members ventured within the literary eirele, and none gained prominence, but later records show that they were only preparing themselves for honors in the future. In that year, 1909, Philo was awarded the decision over Forum in a very close and spirited debate. Again in 1910 most of our members saf back and acquired knowledge by listening to the speeches of more experienced men. That year Robert Winthrop Morse was on the Philo team which again defeated Forum after an exciting debate. In 1911 the elass had Robert Winthrop Morse on the Philo team, besides Oscar Leander Chell and Frederick LaSalle Johnson on the Forum team, which was victorious. However, 1913 is showing her true ability in this last and most important year. On the Philo team are Egbert Foster Tetley, Laurenz James Krueger, Maurice Robert Smith, and William Ogrean as assistant, all of 1913; while Wayne Francis Palmer and Seth Warner Morrison are holding up the honor of the elass on the Forum team. Thus no matter which team Dame Fortune favors, 1913 will be crowned with glory.

1913 POT POURRI

Out of the seven annual debates with Exeter, Andover has won but one, that being in 1907. This record gives an unfair impression, for every debate has been very close. Thus far 1913 has not been represented on the school team, but as a large number of the Philo-Forum debaters are Seniors, it is almost certain that the class will close its debating activities by having several men on the debating team this year. The wealth of good material on the two society teams, coupled with the training from the faculty coaches, make our chances against Exeter appear very bright.

The outlook for debating at Andover in the future is very encouraging. Both debating societies have a firm foundation of young, active members, the rivalry between them being the keynote of their achievements. That they have accomplished something is shown by the fact that their men make college debating teams afterwards. Our only advice to the following classes is that by hoping for the best they shall strive for the best.

MEANS PRIZE SPEAKERS

Religious

HE present year of the Society of Inquiry has been a successful one. There has been a growing interest on the part of the student body in all its affairs. This forward impetus was greatly helped by Mr. Timbic in 1912, who by his hard work and enthusiasm for the Society, placed Inquiry in a new light before many of the students.

Practically half the men at Andover are enrolled in membership this year, and the attendance at meetings has been good. This is due in part to the interesting speakers who have visited us. The former policy of Inquiry to invite college men was observed, and as a result we have had men from Yale, Williams, and other colleges to speak of the Christian work in their institutions. Dr. Boynton and Mr. Stackpole have spoken, and later in the year Mr. Speer will visit us. Three interesting stereopticon lectures were given during the Winter Term.

There were eight Bible Discussion Groups in which business of the present day was discussed, Bible readings were held, and several Lives were studied. The fellows have shown a real interest in these subjects and their average attendance, not compulsory, has been gratifying for the most part to those members of the faculty who have conducted the several classes.

The educational work in Lawrence, which is supported by the Sunday contributions of the students, has had a very efficient undergraduate head in John Hamilton. Mr. Timbie is the graduate head of the organization. Hamilton reports that the work is going steadily on and that the foreigners are attending in good numbers. About thirty fellows have given up an evening a week to go to Lawrence to teach the pupils. The whole school offers its thanks to Hamilton and to those men who so unselfishly devoted their time to help the uneducated foreigners.

1913 POT POURRI

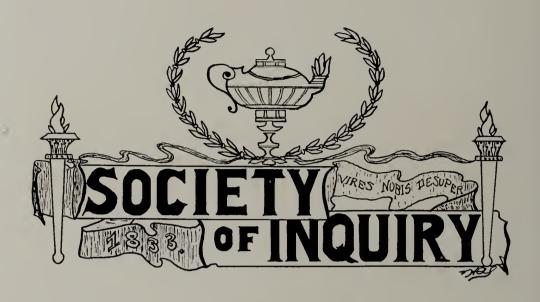

Andover will make especial efforts to have a large delegation at Northfield. To accomplish this, a committee has been formed of fellows who will go, and they will agitate the subject. The general attitude of the students is favorable and a delegation that will be worthy of Andover is expected to go.

It is by just such good spirit as has been shown during the past year, that Inquiry and its different branches will be raised to and will maintain a leading position in the school life. When that goal is attained, Andover will then be enabled to carry out on a larger scale, with the coöperation of the school, the work which she has so well begun.

Northfield

WELVE fellows went from the school to the Conference at Northfield. They lived in East Hall with the large Yale delegation. Owing to an accident, Darling was forced to return home early. The rest of the delegation remained there until the end and had a very instructive and enjoyable time. Following is the list of the delegation: Darling, Bullivant, Beasley, Beach, Gurley, MacMillan, Lindsay, Lee, Sun, Silver, and Shepardson.

Literary

URING the Junior year the Class of 1913, like many of its predecessors, was content to be unrepresented in the literary activities of the school. This beginning, however, was not at all prophetic of the future, for in more recent years the class has set a standard of attainment to reach which, following classes will have to make great efforts.

In the Junior Middle year the class of 1913 began to show its ability. R. N. Quinn represented the class on the Phillipian Board, to which Dan Hanna was elected at the close of the Spring term. In the Philo-Forum Debate the class had two representatives: R. W. Morse on the Philo team and O. L. Chell, a Forum supporter. Unusual honors fell to the Junior Middle class in the Means Prize Speaking when R. W. Morse and O. L. Chell won first and third prizes respectively. In the Draper Speaking, too, the class had a representative in J. W. Feeney, who secured the second prize.

In the Middle year the real strength of the class manifested itself and in various directions the class showed its increased interest in literary activities. E. O. Silver was business manager, Perry Read, assistant business manager, and R. N. Quinn, assistant managing editor of the Phillipian. On the Board were D. R. Hanna, E. L. Davis, K. Woolley, F. M. Dunbaugh, and D. C. Hale. On the Mirror Board the class was represented by Dudley Poore, R. W. Morse, O. L. Chell, and Stephen Jones. K. Woolley was assistant business manager of the Pot-Pourri. The Philo-Forum debaters from the class were O. L. Chell and R. W. Morse. Two members of the class, D. G. Poore and W. W. Leonard, won second prizes in the Means and Draper speaking contests respectively.

During the Senior year the class has been predominant in the literary activities of the school and has more than fulfilled the promise of earlier days. The Phillipian was managed by R. N. Quinn until the Winter term when he had to resign, owing to an unfortunate incident, and R. S. Cook was elected to fill his place for a term. The Senior editors on the Board were D. R. Hanna, E. L. Davis, K. Woolley, F. M. Dunbaugh, D. C. Hale, and W. L. Tucker. The managing editor of the Mirror was Dudley Poore and the business manager was Philip Hunt; Stephen Jones was the third 1913 man on the Board. The Pot-Pourri was under the management of Edward L. Davis, with Knight Woolley business manager. In the Philo-Forum debate the class had as its representatives E. F. Tetley, W. F. Palmer, M. R. Smith, L. J. Krueger, and S. W. Morrison. The members of the class who competed in the Means Prize Speaking were J. L. Davis, M. Hayes, W. J. Hever, M. R. Smith, and K. Woolley. In the Draper Prize Speaking the class was represented by J. W. Feeney, L. J. Krueger, W. W. Leonard, and M. R. Smith.

ATHLETICS

Athletics

N the Fall of 1909 our class entered Andover with a determination to make good in athletics as well as in other lines. With such a spirit we have made good, setting up a standard equal, if not superior, to any previous class, and one which the classes following will do well to strive to reach.

We started off fairly well for a prep. class. "Bob" Jones represented the class on the football team, which defeated Exeter by a score of 3 to 0. Both the hockey and basketball teams had very successful seasons, but our class had no representatives on either. Spring came along and we were all looking forward to two more victories over Exeter, but in this we were disappointed, for the track team was defeated by the score of 54 1-6 to 41 5-6. We were represented by "Bob" Jones. In less than two weeks we got back at Exeter with a victory over them in baseball. "Hap" Burdett was captain, and our class was represented by "Tommy" Boles.

As we entered upon our Junior Middle year there was a decided improvement. After a good summer's rest, and with more determination than ever, we returned that fall and witnessed another football victory over Exeter, the score being 21 to 0. "Dud" Rogers was captain, and, 1913 was represented by "Bob" Jones, "Van" Van Brocklin Heywood Jones and Carl French. "Van" was elected captain for the following year. 1913 was well represented on the second football team; Gould, Sullivan, Bigelow and Bates succeeded in winning a second.

That year Chatterton represented our class on the basketball team, which had a very successful season. Our class put out two winning teams. Under Flagg the hockey team managed to win their numerals, and the basketball team, captained by O'Neill, was just as successful. Spring came and brought along two stinging defcats by Exeter. The track team went down by a score of 58 to 37. Crary and "Bob" Jones were 1913 representatives. Wc also had two men, Van Brocklin and "Tommy" Bolcs, on the baseball team, which unfortunately was beaten by Exeter by a 2 to 1 score.

The Middle year was our banner year. We seemed to win in everything. A 23 to 5 victory over Exeter in football, with eight representatives, including the captain, on the team, was a good starter. These eight men were Captain Van Brocklin, "Bev" Thompson, "Earl" Biglow, "Trev" Hogg, Ames, Sullivan, and "Stu" Bullivant.

The basketball team had two 1913 men, Captain Dillon and "Bev" Thompson. This team, as well as the hockey team, had a very good season. On the hockey team we had Cook and Gould, the latter being elected captain for the following year. Our class teams managed to carry off the honors in basketball, hockey, soccer, and baseball.

For the first time in the history of the school there was a swimming team, on which were Gould and Thompson as representatives of 1913. Gould was elected captain for the next year.

In the spring everyone looked forward to defeating Exeter in both track and baseball. The track team was sadly disappointed, going down to defeat before Exeter by the score of 75 to 21. We had six representatives on the team—"Stu" Crary, "Ned" Davis, "Randy" Bartlett, "Red" Nichols, "Bill" Nielsen, and Kephart. "Stu" Crary was elected captain for the following year. The baseball team came back at Exeter with a 5 to 4 victory. On the team were Captain-elect "Jack" Wiley, Scudder, and "Mark" Murphy.

We now have returned to Andover for our final year with more determination than ever to complete our good record. This year we saw our fourth football victory when Captain Gault's team administered a 7 to 0 defeat to Exeter. 1913 was represented by "Jack" Wiley, "Mac" Baldrige, Smith, "Bill" Nielsen, "Chubby" Sheldon, "Jimmie" Gould, "Trev" Hogg, and Sullivan. Basketball was abolished, so we did not have a chance to make a showing in that sport, and the weather was too warm for hockey, so 1913 could not shine in that line. The swimming team under Captain Gould had a very good season. Under Captain "Jack" Wiley and Manager John Hamilton the baseball team ought to have a very successful season. The same applies to the track team under Manager Dillon and Captain Crary.

With such a record, 1913 can go out of Andover with the satisfaction of having contributed her share to the athletic glory of the old school.

THE OLD CHAPEL

ALPHABETICALLY SPEAKING

Armour's quite an ardent "fusser," and a man of excellent looks. Burnham's there in many ways, but especially with his books. Crary's captain of the track team, and a sprinter of renown, Dickey's always much dressed up; does he need a dressing down? E's a blank, no name to fill it, it's a pity too — but say! Feeney's quite a wit and possibly he'll find a way. Gould — a man we all like well, actions have more force than "bull." Hamilton is sure a fan — with baseball his mind is full. Jones is now a full-fledged poet (wish the deuce he'd written this), Kneen's in love, about to marry? Wonder who's the lucky Miss? Lindsley comes from wild old Texas, where they rope the wary steers. Morrison's an awful grouch; for his future we have fears. Nichols — he's the guy that put the "grin in apple sauce." Ogden would be more successful if he didn't try to boss. Phillips sings a first-rate tenor, and a mandolin plays well. Quinn let slip a harmless joke once; from an editor he fell. Roosevelt, name renowned! But what's a name in ease like this. Sheldon, "Chub," he does not loaf; statistics sometimes are amiss. Thompson is an athlete, but he often easts his looks At Vaughan, a nice young fellow, who is "always at his books." Woolley, Wiley, and "Tug" Wilson, all are workers and good sports. X. Y. Z, must go unmentioned, 'eause I'm feeling out of sorts, And I'm sure you would be, likewise, if you'd worked as hard as me To make these names all fit correctly, and, too, with the rhyme agree.

Brophy (fooling with a stop watch): I think I'll see how long it takes it to go a minute.

On Mr. Keep's Board: We want a cut — Tew.

Mr. Keep: You better substitute an "or" for the dash; although the dash comes after the cut.

STUDENT (bluffing in Virgil): Totoque absistite luco — and total abstinence in the place.

ONE OF "VENUS" BURNES' SHORT DREAMS

Smoke was belching forth in dense ringed clouds from the uppermost windows of a lofty skyscraper down town. Upon the very rooftop, through the murky veil around, could be seen a fair young damsel tripping about on the "light fantastic," endeavoring to find a means of escape from her impending fate, and above the turmoil of excitement could be heard her piercing screams of despair. "Ah-ha," quoth Venus, as the shricks struck deep in his chrivalrous soul, "my chance ariseth to play the hero-act."

In vain the frenzied fire-fighters were gallantly attempting to scale the precipitous front, when, wholly by chance, this bright idea came to Venus. Said he, "Come hither, my men! Follow out these carefully considered instructions and we shall nobly rescue that beauteous maid. Now, if one of you stares up and another stares up, why we'll form a pair of stairs for the damsel to ——" Crash!! Venus awoke to the realization that something had surely gone radically wrong with his thinking powers.

Conway (ramping around): Gosh darn, now you can't find a thing in this room!

THOMPSON: That's right! MacMillan lost his temper in here the other day, and he hasn't found it yet.

RODMAN (as strains of "Moonlight Bay" float down the hall): Say, Bill, let's try that; it sounds good. You sing tenor and I'll carry the tune.

Adams: I can't sing tenor.

"THE MIRACLE"

RODMAN: That's all right. You just sing high and I'll sing low.

WOODBRIDGE (at "Dramatic" trials): Yes, I would like a light part. Mr. Stott: Such as what? Carrying a candle across the stage?

Mr. McCurdy: This is the worst recitation I have ever heard. I have done three-quarters of it myeslf.

TAKEN FROM A DIARY

April 2nd. There seems to be a noise about, that a Mr. Noyes is going to make a noise in the chapel this evening. No-Yes!!!??

Once upon a time three men, of remarkable faculty, started out to see the world; a sage named Forbes, a cynic named Lillard, and an optimist named McCurdy.

After walking all day, they reached the seashore and decided to pitch eamp. The Sage leaned upon a dilapidated Tower. He drew forth a French classic from his pocket and read therefrom for some minutes. "Pas pour moi," said he, turning over a Page to keep the place.

Meanwhile the Cynic had built a fire from some Peet which was lying thereabouts. "If you had Moorehead," said the Optimist, "you would Stackpoles to hold the kettle." Just then a rabbit, a prize for any mighty nimrod, darted from a nearby Warren. The Cynic Lynde a stone at him and dropped him in his tracks.

After they had Eaton the bunny, some Graham wafers and fig Newtons they waxed exceedingly Murray. "One Poynter to you Boyee before we retire," said the Sage; "if you be thirsty during the night, desist from drinking the Bryan of yon sea."

Early the next morn our Optimist awoke and stealing away silently, he quickly strode to a Parmelee (palmy lee) from whence to gaze upon the rising run. The others joined him shortly, the sapient Sage remarking, "You must have Benner before." The Cynie, shivering from the chill of the matutinal air, broke forth, "I don't give a Farnsworth about sticking around here longer." "I'm a Freeman and do just as I please," retorted the other two in one breath.

They strolled away to the sandy shore where they met a boatman with a skiff. "Come," quoth the Optimist, "let us sail to the edge of yonder Bane-roft." "D'accord," murmured the Sage, again pondering over his livre. "But, my Fuess?" demanded the boatman, as the Cynie nimbly jumped aboard the nearby eraft. With mighty stride and graceful leap the Optimist and Sage poised on deck, then with a forceful heave they sped the bark upon its way.

Soon storm clouds gathered o'er the heads of that crew, and the frenzied winds lashed the briny deep to foam. "Alas! Methinks our goodly ship will Phillip(s)," sighed the Sage. "Tis little I care," retorted the Cynic. "Oh, come! 'tis just a mere question of riding a plank ashore," hopefully sang the Optimist as all three sank to their watery Graves.
